

PrivacyDuck.com LLC

8721 Santa Monica Boulevard Ste 441 West Hollywood, California 90069

415.320.1845 | services@privacyduck.com

Client Authorization Form

I, _____, (henceforth referred to as “the Client”) give PrivacyDuck.com (8721 Santa Monica Boulevard, Suite 441, West Hollywood, CA 90069 henceforth referred to as “PrivacyDuck”) and their employees authorization to work on my behalf and as a representative of myself for the express and extremely limited purposes of identifying and removing personal information from the Internet, including but not limited to people search sites, people search aggregation sites, consumer-grade background check sites, reverse email and telephone lookup sites, reverse address search sites, genealogy research sites, consumer-grade credit reporting sites, real estate evaluation sites, undesirable industry-specific contact database sites, and deep web/TOR-accessed people search and data mining sites. This is effective on ____/____/20__.

This includes creation of an anonymous email account, the completion of online forms, the writing and mailing of letters, dead link requests submission to search engines, and other correspondence as is required on your behalf in order to fully remove and delete personal information. The Client acknowledges that PrivacyDuck must work within the established timeframes and removal procedures of each company. PrivacyDuck is not responsible and/or liable for delayed responses, website errors, or other factors which would delay removal from covered websites that are beyond the control of PrivacyDuck. Additionally, PrivacyDuck is not responsible and/or liable for ignored requests by people search companies. I hereby understand that PrivacyDuck will continue with repeated, documented requests, and Due Diligence applications during the service term, which may include but are not limited to FTC, Google, and IC3.gov complaints, as deemed necessary past the Due Diligence process by PrivacyDuck staff.

I hereby understand that PrivacyDuck is not pursuing and not responsible and/or liable for professional business listings, .gov (Government) sites, government-sourced privately-owned U.S. Government salary sites, voter registration sites, White House Visitor Logs, social media, blogs/vlogs, personal websites, newspapers / news sites, mug shot sites, arrest record sites, printed directories, résumé sites, company directories, religious directories, and their aggregators and search engine directory listings, nor for any sites outside of the purview of the listed offerings at time of current service level purchased. I hereby understand that PrivacyDuck does not and cannot pursue removal of Personally-Identifiable Information from opted-in, public-facing sites, including but not limited to Wedding and Baby Registries, funeral registries / online memorandum forums, print or online obituaries, or Amazon Wish Lists. I hereby understand that PrivacyDuck does not and cannot pursue removal from logged personal online usage on your own devices, or cached history of electronic/smart devices, including but not limited to streaming services, internet usage, and television viewing activity.

I hereby understand and agree that PrivacyDuck.com LLC will never, under any circumstances, share, sell, or otherwise make available any personal information that is supplied and/or discovered in the identification and removal process. PrivacyDuck.com and its employees will take every possible precaution and security measure for the protection of data, including agreement to never host personal client information on any company servers. PrivacyDuck.com agrees to only expose information as necessary to in-house, screened, trained employees working from the Los Angeles, California location. PrivacyDuck.com will only provide limited client information to people-search companies and sites as described above for the express and required purpose of verifying the personal information to be removed. At no time will PrivacyDuck.com expose any additional information to any such company beyond what they already display.

(Client or Authorized Representative Printed Name)

(Client or Authorized Representative Signature)

William McAdam, Founder & President, PrivacyDuck